Duncan Fraser and His Bride Home from France

Mrs. John Barrymore Also Returns From Europe by the France.

sterday from France of the marently in Ussat, Arlege, of Miss lairette Regis-Bouyoud, daughter of rage recently in Ussat. Ariege, of Miss Clairette Regis-Bouyoud, daughter of Mr. Duncan Fraser of this city and Ardsley on Hudson. Coincident with the announcement Mr. Fraser arrived yesterday with his bride by the France and went to Ardsley on Hudson to Join his mother. Mrs. Charles D. Fraser.

Mr. Fraser's father, who died several years ago, was connected with the United States Steel Corporation. The bridegroom left Harvard in his junior year to enter the officers' training camp year to enter the officers' training camp and network the Sixteenth Infantry of the First Division and served through several major engagements in 1918.

He was severely wounded at Soissons and received the Distinguished Service from the United States and the Croix de Guerre from France. Upon his discharge from the hospital he reentered the army and served eight months after the armistice. He then returned to this country to finish a course at Harvard and received his degree. He met his bride while abroad last year.

Among ofter passengers by the France was Michael Strange, otherwise Mrs. John Barrymore, and his sister, Miss Ethel Barrymore, in two months he would start for Europe with a film to be exhibited abroad.

The French liner also brought Titta Kunfo, barytone, who will enter the Metropolitan Opera Company and be heard in a new role in "Ernani." He spart the summer at Salsa Maggiore. Also on board were Mr. and Mrs. Guiseppe Campanarl. The former Metropolitan barytone was happy that his daughter, Marina, a coloratura soprano, had been engaged to sing at La Scala, Millan. The Companari family went to their home at 688 West End avenue.

Others returning were the Swanson staters, Letty and Hettle, who appeared to sing at La Scala, Millan. The Companari family went to their home at 688 West End avenue.

Others returned provided the Counce of November.

Mrs. And Mrs. Louden Bar Harbor. Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, Jr., entertained at dinner last in the Mother of the Mrs. Guiseppe Campanari family went to their home at 688 West End

Others returning were the Swanson sisters, Letty and Hettie, who appeared for three months in London and Paris, and are now to enter Shubert vaude-ville, and the Rigoletto brothers, who are here also to go to the Shuberts.

Mr. Edward Simmons Hall of 129 East Fifty-fourth street also returned from Mrs. J. W. Findlay of London, who was Miss Helen B. Rich, daughter of Mrs. Frank L. Stratton, 145 West Fifty-fifth street, sailed last Saturday by the Corona to visit with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. George Iswolsky sailed yesterday by the Carmania.

SOCIETY AIDS BRIDGE BENEFIT.

thousand invitations are being sent out by Mrs. Francis Burrall Hoffman for a bridge tournament to be given in the Plaza on the evening of November 1 for the benefit of the Woman's Nafor the benefit of the Woman's Na-ional Foundation. Among those who leve taken tables are Mmes. Charles ary Rumsey, Cornellus Vanderbilt, Villiam Redding, John Harsen Rhoades, leorge Ethridge, Jose Aymar, Edson bradley, Gardiner Brown, James Brown, rwin Powell, Charles Van Rensselaer, Frank M. Leavitt and Lyttleton Fox.

Washington, D. C., president of the Foundation, and Mrs. James McDonaid, lirst vice-president, are in Buffalo for the convention of the State Federation of Woman's Clubs, before which Mrs. Calhoun will speak this afternoon.

HARRISON-CLAYTON.

ecial Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. MONTCLAIR, N. J., Oct. 11.—Miss Edith Clayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. rank E. Clayton, and Mr. Marvin Preslist Episcopal Church. Miss Eliza-arison was maid of honor. The other attendants were the Misses Iva and Elizabeth Clayton, sisters of the bride; Miss Barbara Freeman of Glen Ridge and Mrs. William C. Syrett of Bloomfield Mr. Carl von Goeben of turned to New York yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Aspegren have closed the D'Hauteville villa and religion field. New York was the best man.

Special Despatch to The New York Herald.

Special Despatch to The New York Herald.
Providence, R. L., Oct. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. John B. Mills of Bristol and New York have announced the engagement of their sister, Miss Helene de St. T. Case, daughter of the late Daniel R. Case of Bristol, to Major G. F. Counal Rowan of the British army. Miss Case recently returned from England.

ENGAGENTO.

Case, daughter of the late Daniel R. Gae, daughter of the late Daniel R. Gae, daughter of the late Daniel R. G. F. Comile R. G

AT 2:30 P. M. EACH DAY IN

SILO'S Fifth Ave. Fifth Ave.
Art Galleries,
40 E. 45th St.
S. W. COR.
Vanderbilt Ave. James P. Silo & Son, Auctioneses,

HAVE BEEN INSTRUCTED TO SELL THE ENTIRE CONTENTS OF AN APARTMENT Removed from

270 Park Avenue Living, Dining and Bed From Furniture, Hang-ings, Ruge, Linen, China, Gless and Paintings

CITERR COLLECTION OF Intique Furniture Covered in Needlework and Tapestry, Genoese Velvets, etc.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Terry are stop-ng at the Hotel Chatham.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Murray Young will eturn from Bar Harbor, Me., on Octo-

Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Rutherfurd of Washington are at the Vanderbilt for a few days.

Mrs. John Innes Kane will return to New York from Bar Harbor, Me., on Saturday.

WASHINGTON.

42-44 East 58th St.

OLYMPIC BRINGS 1,470 ON SWIFT TRIP FROM EUROPE Members Meet at Cottage of the Misses Parsons.

Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., formerly Miss Margaret Fahnestock of New York, and Miss Katherine Mackay arriving aboard the Olympic.

A. A. Johnson Reports Deplorable Famine Conditions in Russia Due to Crop Failure—Rodman Wanamaker Returns.

Senator and Mrs. du Pont have taken an apartment at the Willard.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Willard H. Brownson, who landed in New York on Monday from the Celtic after passing several mouths abroad, will arrive in Washington to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus H. K. Curtis of Philadelphia are cruising abroad their yacht, the Lyndonia, which is new anchored in the Potomac off Washington. Col. Edward M. House, who arrived yesterday, will be entertained aboard the yacht.

Mrs. Coolidge, wife of the Vice-President, will be the chief guest at a luncheon which Mrs. Joseph Irwin France, wife of Senator France of Maryiand. Mrs. Edwin T. Meredith was the Mrs. Admirable and aboard the steamboat Correction.

The White Star liner Olympic, greatest of British built steamships, from Southampton and Cherbourg, docked last of British built steamships, from Southampton and Cherbourg, docked last of British built steamships, from Southampton and Cherbourg, docked last of British built steamships, from Southampton and Cherbourg, docked last of British built steamships, from Southampton and Cherbourg, docked last of British built steamships, from Southampton and Cherbourg, docked last of British built steamships, from Southampton and Cherbourg, docked last of British built steamships, from Southampton and Cherbourg, docked last night after a swift run at an average speed of 21.6 knots, one of her best performances this year. She brought 1,470 passengers, including 1,189 in the first and second capins, the examination of the health officials at Quarantine had tompleted the examination of the health officials at Quarantine had tompleted the examination of the health officials at Quarantine had tompleted the examination of the health officials and pararage speed of 21.6 knots, one of her best performances this year. She brought 1,470 passengers, including 1,189 in the first in the hist in the hi of his friends greeted him down the bay with the Street Cleaning Departhome in Baltimore.

Mrs. Edwin T. Meredith was the chief guest of the Ladies of the Senate at their weekly luncheon yesterday, over which Mrs. Coolidge presided. Mr. and Mrs. Meredith will remain several weeks in Waskington renewing acquaintances made while he was Secretary of Agriculture.

NEWPORT.

N

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Taylor of 125 West 121st street gave a large reception and dinner last night in the St. Rogis to celebrate their golden wedding. Host and hosters, with their children and grandchildren, received under a canopy of palms and yellow chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Emma Ballin Walton, a widow, and Mr. William L. York, and Mrs. Event was married in her home yesterday by the Rev. Collegate Church, to Mr. Charles Wiley Ballard, also of this city. Mr. Ballard's returned from Rye to 51 East members of the families were present.

A meeting of the executive box eighth street.

A meeting of the executive board of the Federation for Child Study is to be held in the home of its president, Mrs. Howard S. Gans, 260 West Seventy-sixth street. Friday afternoon. Mrs. Gans recently returned from abroad, where she studied educational experiments.

Lieut.-Col. Frank J. Griffin, U. S. A., and Mrs. Griffin arrived yeaterday from Washington by automobile and are at the Hotol Astor for a few days before starting on a six weeks motor trip through the control of the con

MISS SARGENT HEADS LENOX GARDEN CLUB

LENOX, Mass., Oct. 11 .- The Misses Mary and Gertrude Parsons had the members of the Lenox Garden Club as guests at Stoneover this afternoon. Officers were elected as follows: President, Miss Georgiana W. Sargent; first vicepresident, Dr. William Gilman Thompson; second vice-president, Mrs. Banyer Clarkson; secretary, Mrs. David Ives Mackie: corresponding secretary, Miss Marion Davies; treasurer, Mr. Banyer Clarkson ; recorder, Mrs. William H. Carstereopticon lecture on "Rock Gardens," and tea was served by Misses Heloise were stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Henry at Sunset villa.

Mrs. George Winthrop Folsom and her sister, Mrs. Joseph S. Whistler, started for Cohasset on Cape Cod for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Bigelow.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brewer, Mr. Warren Motley and Mr. Kenneth Howes of Boston are at the Red Lion Inn at Stockbridge.

of Boston are at the Red Lion and ac Stockbridge.

Mrs. Edwin Corning, Mrs. Franklin Townsend and Mrs. Lydia Hun of Albany were in a luncheon party at the Lenox Club.

Arrivals at the Greylock Hotel at Williamstown include Dr. and Mrs. Au-gustus B. Wadsworth of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Coolidge and Miss Coolidge of Boston.

WANAMAKER Y. M. C. A. BUILDING FOR MOSCOW Donates Funds in Memory of

Sir George Williams.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11 .- Dr. John R. Mott general secretary of the Y. M. C. A anounced to-night that John Wanafunds for the erection of a Y. M. C. A building in Moscow, Russia, in memory of Sir George Williams, founder of th

Young Men's Christian Association. Mr. Wanamaker's telegram announcing the gift said he would like to have ing the gift said he would like to have it established "where it is so much needed to-day and where its influence would be felt for good principles and good government, in Moscow, known as the Holy City of Russia." The building is the sixth Y. M. C. A. donated to foreign lands by Mr. Wanamaker. The other five are at Madras, Calcutta, Kyoto, Seoul and Pekin.

Sir Harry Lauder will be the guest of countess served with the American Red Cross in the war and was decorated with the Order of the Grand Cross of the British Empire and received a silver medal from the American Red Cross. in the Viscountess's party was the Countess Granard, formerly Miss Beatrice Mills, daughter of Ogden Mils, and three children. They will visit here until December, when the Earl of Granard will come over and take them home.

Mrs. Mark A. Lucscher received the most votes cast for the most popular woman motorist in New York in a content content of the Commissioner Figure 1 (and the committee consisting of Alexander Johnston, chairman; asting of Alexander Johnston, chairman; of the Waldorf-Astoria and Miss Eisle Janis. Thirty women, principally actresses, were in the competition. Mrs. Luescher is the wife of the Hippodrome's

NOTES OF THE THEATRES.

Charles Dillingham will present for the first time to-night his new musical comedy "Good Morning, Dearie," by Jerome Kern and Anne Caldwell, at the Apollo Theatre in Atlantic City. The cast is headed by Miss Louise Groody and includes Oscar Shaw, Harland Dixon and William Kent.

The Irish Players will give a holidar matinee to-day of "The White Headed Boy" at Henry Miller's Theatre, so will John Charles Thomas in "The Love Letter" at the Globe, and Allan Pollock in "A Bill of Divorcement" at the George M. Cohan.

Retired Manager Will Observe Theatre in Many

some of the plans he outlined for himself terday that he will sail for Europe week from to-morrow. Mr. Cohan has made a couple of trips abroad before but this will be the longest he ever has be on the other side, saying that his plans were indefinite. However, he will probably visit all the leading countries Hollister Pease in Lenox, have returned to New York.

Mrs. John J. Lapham of New York, Mrs. Joseph H. Brazier and Miss Josephine Brazier of Philadelphia are at the Curtis Hotel.

Mrs. David Lydig, who closed her villa to-day, is there for ten days before returning to New York.

Miss Mary Ingersoll of New York is the guest of Mrs. Reuben Wing Howes at Sunset villa.

Mrs. George Winthrop Folsom and her with the Mrs. George Winthrop Folsom and her announcement, is making good his plans

SWANN WILL INSPECT CARRY ON RECORDS

District Attorney Edward Swann an story that the National Information Bu-reau had announced suspension of the Indorsement of the Carry On Association which, under the direction of Mrs. Wen-dell Phillips, has provided a home for $12 a week to disabled ex-soldiers. Mrs. Phillips and her attorney, Jerome Stoddard, issued a statement saying they welcomed the investigation and that the trouble had been caused by persons who should not be issued. L. B. HOWE, Secretary.

LOST, Sunday evening, Oct. 9, in the 7th
av. and E'way subway, between Bergen at., Bkiyn., and Times sq., large envelope containing autographed photographs of King of hold an "interallied" entertainment and dance in the Twelfth Regiment Armory armistice night, November 11, under the auspices of the American Legion, the British Great War Veterans Association. The guests will include the post commanders of the American Legion and the French war Veterans Association. The guests will include the post commanders of the American Legion and the French and British ConsulsGeneral. The proceeds will go to relief work among ex-soldlers by the three organizations.

Pierre's new restaurant had its public thers. opening last night. Among those who Elsie had guests for dinner were Mrs. Hermann Celrichs, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould will be paid for the return of play Mrs. We good Mrs. Elist Communications of the paid for the return of play the conduction of the paid for the return of play the conduction of the paid for the return of play the conduction of the paid for the return of play the conduction of the paid for the return of play the conduction of the paid for the return of play the conduction of the paid for the return of play the conduction of the paid for the return of play the conduction of the paid for the return of play the paid for the paid Mr. and Mrs. Eliot Cross, Mr. a mann Oelrichs, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould

Mr. and Mrs. Eliot Cross, Mr. and Mrs.
Frederick Edey, Mrs. Foster Milliken,
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. John McE. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Langley, Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop E. Dwight, Major Fullerton Weaver, Dr. P. E. D. Malcolm and Mr. John P.
Kane.

$50,000 GIFT TO UNIVERSITY.
A gift of $50,000 by a single donor to start the campaign of the University of Georgia for an endowment fund of $1,000,000 to be raised by alumni of the institution, was announced last night at
the endowment dinner at the Hotel Pennsylvania. Scores of similar dinners were held last night throughout the country. The name of the donor was not made public.

CORONA K. OF C. HAVE BAZAAR.
General Sherman Council, Knights of Columbus, of Corona, L. I., opened a five evenings' celebration last night in $200 REWARD

Will be paid for the return of platinum madeline containing 5 large diamonds set in echtre and numerous smail ones, lost October 9 between 92d st and Penn. Station of in 5th evenue bus. BLACK, STARR &
FROST, 5th av. and 48th st.
USST—October 4, beaded bag, with silver
top, containing two purses; liberal reward.
COST—October 4, beaded bag, with silver
top, containing two purses; liberal reward.
COST—October 4, beaded bag, with silver
top, containing two purses; liberal reward.
COST—October 4, beaded bag, with silver
top, containing two purses; liberal reward.
COST—October 4, beaded bag, with silver
top, containing two purses; liberal reward.
COST—October 4, beaded bag, with silver
top, containing two purses; liberal reward.
COST—October 4, beaded bag, with silver
top, containing two purses; liberal reward.
COST—October 4, beaded bag, with silver top, containing two purses; lost of the accuracy of the University of Georgia for an endowment fund of
$1,000,000 to be raised by alumni of the institution, was announced last night at
the endowment dinner at the Hotel
Pennsylvania, Scores of similar dinners
were held last night throughout the
COST—October 4, beaded bag, with silver
top

General Sherman Council, Knights of Columbus, of Corona, L. I., opened a five evenings' celebration last night in their new clubhouse, at Forty-eighth street and Polk avenue, Corona. The celebration is called "Five Arabian Nights," and will include a bagaar. The proceeds will be used to furnish the new $50,000 clubhouse.

for return of flexible diamond bracelet, lost of columbus 1230 REWARD for return of star sapphire lost from ring cet. S at or between 13 Jolson Theatre and Commodore Hotel. A. R. LEE & CO., INC., 15 William st.

Wearing Apparel.

LOST—Russian sable scarf, Sunday, in taxi,

LOST-Russian sable scarf, Sunday, in taxi, between Polo Grounds and Pennsylvania Hotel; reward. Mrs. GULLETTE, Penn-sylvania Hotel. HYMN WRITER LEAVES $300,000 CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Edwin O. Excell, song writer, evangelist and associate of Dwight L. Moody and Ira D. Sankey, left an estate of $300,000, according to an inventary filed in Probate Court today. Mr. Excell died on June 10. The estate includes copyrights of many of his famous hymns.

Hote: Feward. Size. Cate, Degs. &c.

Cate, Degs. &c.

LOST—Hosten bitch, all white, with black face, at Van Wyck and Jerome ava. Jamaica: liberal reward. Phone Jamaica 2797W.

MARRIED. ARNOLD-IRVING.—In New York city, on Tuesday, October 11, 1921, Esther McDermott Irving to Cornwall Lewis Arnold.

BALLARD-WALTON.—On Tuesday, October 11, 1921, in New York city, by Rev. Henry E. Cobb, D. D., Mrs. Emms Ballin Walton, daughter of Gustav N. Ballin, to Charles Wiley Ballard, both of New York.

OBITUARIES.

MRS. WILLIAM W. MERRILL.

MME. MARQUISAN DIES IN PARIS

Formerly Miss Frances Moor of Washington.

LETELLIER REQUIEM TO-DAY.

Yorkville Church.

CHARLES E. MEIMANN.

Charles E. Meimann, one of the oldest merchants of Washington Market, died suddenly Monday of arterio-sclerosis. He was 69 years old and lived at 101

LOST AND FOUND.

MARRIED.

DIED.

Anderson David P.
Beattle, Christopher
Beck, Georgia V.
Erand, Herbert W.
Cowan, Adelaide M.
Furstenberg, Harry
Gillette, Sarah L.
Gwynn, Marle L.
Halnes, Mrs. R. P.
Halpern, Esther
Harreld, Lucy V.
Hayden, James R.
Healy, Elitabeth E.
Huested, Richmond W.
Kaesche, Max B.

ANDERSON.—Corporal David P., Combany C. 315th Infantry, beloved son of Oscar and Josephine and brother of Oscar W. Killed in action September 28, 1918. Meuse-Argonne drive. Funeral service at his late residence, Stamford, Conta, Wednesday, October 12, at 1 P. M. Inter-ment Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Tarry-town.

Conklin, Kennedy Lederer, Florence Lederer, Samuel J.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD. New York Herald Bareau, Paris, Oct. 11.

Funeral services were held to-day for Mme. Henri Marquisan, formerly Miss Frances Moore of Washington, at the parish chapel of the Church of St. Honore d'Eylau here. The body will lie near Ronne at the Marquisans' country estate, where funeral services also will be held.

A solemn requiem anniversary mass for the repose of the soul of the late Rev. Arthur Letellier, late rector of the Roman Catholic Church of St. Jean Baptiste, Seventy-sixth street and Lexington avenue, and superior of the Fathers of the Blessed Sacrament, who died suddenly last August in Montreal, where he had gone to make an address at the annual retreat of the priests of the order, will take place at 10 o'clock this morning in St. Jean's Church.

The mass was arranged for by members of Congress Own Council, 502, Knights of Columbus, of which Father Letellier formerly had been a member and chaplain. The Rev. John Graham of the Fathers of the Blessed Sacrament and present chaplain of Congress Own Council will be the celebrant. o'clock.

HAINES.—Mrs. Richard P. (nee Mory Augusta Price), daughter of the late Jesse D. Price, at Westfield, N. J., on Tuesday, October 11, 1921. Funeral services at her late home, 318 East Broad st., Westfield, o'clock.

DUESTED,—At Hartsdale, N. Y., October 11, 1921. Richmond W., in his 66th year, husband of Hannah E. Hetherington. Funeral services Grace Episcopal Church, White Plains. N. Y., Thursday, October 13, at 3 P. M. Train leaves Grand Central Station 2:13.

AESCHE.—Suddenly, on October 11, 192 Max B., beloved husband of Emma I Kaesche. Funeral private, from his la residence, 190 Riverside Drive. Kindi hereafter.

MARQUISAN.—Funeral services were held
October 11 for Mme. Henri Marquisan (nee Francis Moore of Washington) at the parish chapel of the Church of St.
Honore d'Eylau, Paris. The remains will be taken to lie near Ronne, at the Mar-deDONNELL.—Mary M. (nee Traynor), be-loved wife of Walter E. McDonnell, on Tuesday, October 11. Notice of funeral services hereafter.

New Rochelle.

OUTWATER.—On October 11, 1921. Catherine
G., beloved daughter of Mrs. S. Cliffton Mabon, in the 11th year of her arc. Funeral services in the chapel of the Collegiste Church of St Nicholse, 5th av. and 48th et., on Thursday morning, at 11 octobe. Interment private.

PATRICK.—At Rutherford, N. J., Jane Hill, widow of the late John Patrick, Monday, October 10. Funeral service at her late home, 41 Raymond av., on Wednesday, October 12, at 2 P. M. Interment at convenience of the family.
SCHWAGER.—Entered into rest on Monday.

October 12, at 2 P. M. Interment at convenience of the family.

SCHWAGER.—Entered into rest on Monday.
October 10, 1921, at his residence, 582 2d st., Brooklyn, Gabriel Schwager, beloved husband of Thereas Schwager and father of Alfred, Emanuel and Mortimer and the late Leo Schwager, Funeral services Thursday, at 2 P. M., Eighth Av.
Temple, Brooklyn. Interment Mount Neboh Cennetery.

SITTNER.—Private Edward Sittner, Company K., 306th Infantry, 77th Division, killed in action in the Argonne Forest on September 27, 1918. Funeral services chapel Stephen Merritt Burial and Cremation Company, 161 Sth av., corner 18th st., on Thursday morning, October 13, at 11 o'clock. Interment Mount Neboh Cennetery.

IN MEMORIAM.

fantry, died in France October 12, 1918.
LEDERER.—In loving memory of our dear
eister, Florence, who died October 12, 1918. Sophie, Mortimer and Harold.
LEDERER.—In loving memory of our dear
father, Samuel J., who died October 13, 1918. Sophie, Mortimer, Harold.
RHEINER.—Theodore. In fond remembrance of a devoted husband and loving father, who passed away October 12, 1911.
TAYLOR.—Leroy Mortimer, October 12.

SCOTT.—Mr. and Mrs. Max Scott of Chostas Hill Park, Mount Vernon, N. Y., extend New Year's greetings to their relatives and friends.

UNDERTAKERS.

Marriages Annulments

tion in THE NEW YORK HER-ALD any time up to midnight for the next day's issue. Call Chelsea 4000 up to 10 P. M. After that hour, Worth 10,000.

DIED.

NOTICES OF Births Memorials Engagements Confirmations may be telephoned for publica-

Mrs. Cornelius N. Bliss, who passed he summer in Southampton, L. I., has cturned to New York.

Luncheon parties were given in the Plaza yesterday by Lady Inverforth, who had sixteen guests; Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Warren, Jr., Miss Pauline Robinson, Mrs. Henry Fletcher Godfrey, Mrs. Charles Steele, Mrs. Albert Gould Jennings and Mrs. William M. V. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Emery entertained at dinner there last night.

into Russia, covering a circuit of about 5,000 miles. They were permitted by the Lenine Government to go where they pleased in a special car drawn by a 5 special locornotive and protected by Red guards. He said he found things deplorable and the thirty days he spent in the country were the worst in his life. He said the crop failure and not Bolshevism was the cause of the famine. The Bolshevik Government was eager to get into diplomatic and commercial relations with the United States. Mr. Johnson will make a supplementary report of his work to Mr. Hoover.

Reginald McKenna, formerly Chancellor of the British Exchequer, apparently here on a mission for his Government, was taken from the Olympic by the Crocker at the Ritz-Cariton.

(larke's

St. (Pet. Madison & Park Aves.)

NOW ON VIEW

Fstate of the Late LUCILE HAYDEN The Modern Furniture, Silver, Choice Bed and Table Linens, Oriental Rugs, Draperies, Art Objects and other valuable personal property removed from the Fifth Avenue residence and also from the Long

To-Morrow, Friday and Saturday October 13th, 14th and 15th each afternoon at 2:30 P. M.
BY ORDER OF THE EXECUTORS
MR. AUGUSTUS W. CLARKE WILL CONDUCT THE SALE.

To Be Sold by Auction

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Wonham have returned from Rye to 51 East Fifty-eighth street.

the Hotel Astor for a few days before starting on a six weeks motor trip through the Berkshires and to Maine.

Liout.-Commander and Mrs. Leo Hewlet Thebaud have taken an apariment at the Vanderbilt. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Brown of Montpeller, Vt., Mrs. S. B. Poe and Mr. F. B. Poe, Jr., of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Healy of Pottstown, Pa., Mrs. W. Riley Deeble and Miss Margaret Deeble of Washington also are there,

At the Hotel Chatham are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bansher, Miss G. M. *Cunningham and Mrs. E. R. Kemp.

Trail.

MOTION PICTURE NOTES.

Miss Gloria Swanson in "Under the Leash," at 232 Pearl street, and a member of the "Big Six" Typographical Union for many years, died suddenly yesterday as he was about to report for work. He was 55 years old and lived at 200A Putnam avenue, Brooklyn.

When "Theodora," the Goldwyn screen speciale, receives its first showing at the Astor Theatre on Friday night the musicans of the orchestra, according to arrangements made by S. L. Rothafel, will occupy the property of the porce on both sides of the house and willess Axx.

COMPOSITOR DIES SUDDENLY.

George Carpenter, a compositor, employed by Harper & Brothers, publishers, at 2325 Pearl street, and a member of the "Big Six" Typographical Union for many years, died suddenly yesterday as he was about to report for work. He was 55 years old and lived at 200A Putnam avenue, Brooklyn.

ISIDORE GARTNER.

Isidore Gartner, who for more than specially in the boxes on both sides of the house and will be led by two conductors, Erno Rapee and Willess Axx.

George M. Cohan Going Abroad for Travel and Rest

Mrs. Phillips Says She Will Welcome Investigation.

rouble had been caused by persons who wished to open a rival institution.

Directors of the Carry On Association, who express their entire confidence in lost his left arm at Gettysburg. Major Turner, who was 80 years old lost his left arm at Gettysburg. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. E. Palmer Gavit of Albany. Mrs. Phillips, are Frank Presbrey, Will-iam C. Brood, Edward H. Clark, Gerald M. Curran, Joseph P. Day, Alton B. Parker, Mrs. Phillips, Parker Sloane, Edwin S. Schenck, Walter Stabler, Alfred Stanley and Charles H. Sabin. The organization maintains two houses in this city, at 271 Madison avenue and in Warwick street. Brooklyn. Mr. Mei-mann was one of the original members of the Washington Market Merchants Association, having been for fifty years in business there as a butter and egg merchant. He leaves three sons and three daughters. pecial Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. PLAINFIELD, N. J., Oct. 11.—Miss Mac PLAINFIELD, N. J., Oct. 11.—Miss Mae Marsh, who has appeared in most of the D. W. Griffith film productions, including "The Birth of a Nation" and "Intolerance," made her debut as a star in the spoken drama at the Plainfield Theatre last evening in a comedy by Robert Demoster called "Brittle."

Brittle (Miss Marsh) is a maid of all work who manages the household and brings order out of chaos. Walter Connelly, Hubert Druce and Miss Amy Veness are in the cast.

Bervices Stephen Mertitt Chapel, 227 S av. near 21st st., Wednesday, S P. M. BECK.—At Hoboken, N. J., on Monday, O tober 10, 1921. Georgia V. Beck, daughts of the late George W. and Carolino held, at her residence, 1220 Garden st. Hoboken. Funeral services with mars o requien at the Church of the Holy Innocents, Willow av. and 6th st., on Thurs day, October 13, at 10 A. M. BRAND.—Herbert W., beloved hueband of Mata Heinsman Brand, devoted son Sadle and Joseph L. Brand and brother Edwin W., aged 33, passed away 5 P. M. Tuesday. Funeral services will be held at Campbell's Funeral Parlors. Broadway at 66th st., Thursday, October 15, at 13. N. WAN.—At hes by Company of the control of the con

termon at a clock.

wood Cemetery.

TURSTENBERG.—On October 11, Harry

Furstenberg, aged 63, beloved husband of

Fanny Furstenberg. Funeral Thursday,

October 13, at 2 P. M., from his late realdence, 542 West 178th st.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 11.—S. Davis Page, widely known lawyer, died to-day after an illness of four days. He was $1 years old.

Mr. Page was graduated from Yale in 1859. During his college days he was Commodore of the Yale "Navy" and trained and stroked the first Yale crew to defeat Harvard. He served as city Comptroller of Philadelphia in 1838, and three years later was appointed Assistant United States Treasurer in this city by President Cleveland. For several fears he was associated with United States Senator Penrose in the practice of law. west 130H. st., on Thursony, October 15, at 1:35 P. M.

HARROLD.—At Greenwich, Conn., on Sunday, October 9, 1921, Lucy Virginia (nee Gorden), beloved mother of Nan Slavin. Fuental private.

HAYDEN.—Suddenly, at Cedarhurst, L. I., on October 10, 1921, Dr. James R. Hayden, in the 60th year of his age. Funeral services will be held at his late residence, 131 West 65th st., on Thursday morning. October 13, at 10 o'clock. It is kindly requested that no flowers be sent.

HEALY.—Elizabeth Ella, wife of the late Frank Healy, at her summer home, Cold Spring-on-the-Hudson, Tuesday, October 11, 1921. Funeral services will be held at the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church, Lafayette av. and South Oxford st., Brooklyn, on Friday afternoon, October 14, at 2:30 o'clock. Interment private HUESTED.—At Hartsdale, N. Y., October 11.

BROWN, 51 West Sist et.

LOST-Pocketbook, Staten Island ferry or boat, Tuesday, October 11; reward. DAY, 156 5th av.

LOST-Automobile tool box on Jackson av.
between Flushing Bay and Corona; reward $25. N. S. REEDER, 55 Broad et.
LOST-Black leather bag in taxi, Return
Mrs. JOHN BERGSTROM, Hotel Chatham. STRATLEY.—Henry, on October 11, at his residence, 135 W. 103d st. Notice of fu-neral hereafter. TIERS.—Cornelius Tiers, in Paris, Hotel Crillon, on Thursday, Aug

TIERS—Cornelius Tiers, in Paris, at the Hotel Crillon, on Thursday, August 11, 1921. Funeral services will be held at St. Patrick's Cathedral, 50th et. and 5th av., New York city, on Friday morning, October 14, at 10 o'clock. Interment privates, Please ornit flowers.

WHEELER.—Eva S., on October 2. Services The Funeral Church, Bway, at 68th et., of Wednesday, October 12, at 2 P. M. Chicago papers please copy.

WHIPPLE.—Dorris. beloved husband of Louise E. Whitpple, on the 11th day of October, 1921, in the 12d year of his agas funeral services will be held at the residence of his son, Dorris W. Whipple, a Allerton st., Eronxville, N. Y., on Thuraday, October 13, at 2:30 P. M. It is kindly requested that no flowers be sent.

WILLETS.—At Yardley, Pa., October 19, 1921, John H. Willets, son of the late Edward and Anna B. Willets of Purchase, Westchester county, N. Y., in the 73d year of his age. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral from the Friends Meeting House, Purchase, N. Y., October 12, at 2 P. M. Conveyances will meet train leaving Grand Central at 12:35 P. M., arriving at White Plains at 1:35.

CONKLIN.—In loving memory of Kenneds Conklin, Sergeant Company L, 107th Infantry, died in France October 12, 1918.

HOLIDAY GREETINGS.